Flag Covered Coffins of Dead Sailors and Marines Killed at Vera Cruz on the Montana at New York.

This picture shows the coffins containing the bodies of seventeen sailors and marines killed at Vera Cruz in the fighting that marked the American occupation of the city. They are shown covered by flags on the deck of the cruiser Montana, which brought them to New York. The picture was taken just before the coffins were brought ashore with military honours and transferred to the Brooklyn navy yard, where President Wilson, Secretary of the Navy Daniels and others participated in the memorial services.

UP TO GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL

Mayor Wants Old Arsenal Turned Over to City--Then to be Abandoned

Mayor Yeaton is working hard to have the old arsenal abandoned on South street and the site utilized as a playground for the Haven school. The matter must necessarily come before the governor and council and if that executive body will turn it over to the city the mayor proposes to have it torn down if such plan is agreeable to the citizens and the board of council.

The abolition of the building will make a great improvement in that section and fill a long felt want for the school department. It is proposed to use some of the brick for inside construction for the armory if such can be done. The matter of transferring it to the city will come up before the governor and council at the next meeting, on Wednesday, May 20.

The fifteenth annual convention of the Knights of Columbus was held at Laconia on Tuesday. A large number of delegates attended the grand council meeting which was held in the headquarters of the Laconia council, where John M. Gony, state deputy presided. The officers elected for the coming year include: State deputy,

C. Doherty of Portsmouth.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the officers and visiting delegates enjoyed a

Later in the afternoon the visitors

conia council to a vaudeville entertainment at the New Colonial theatre.

SHOVELING SNOW

Quite a good fall of snow at San-

LOOK FOR EARLY CALL FOR STATE TROOPS

HER STOP WILL BE BRIEF

Report Says Montana Will Return at Once to Vera Cruz With Marines.

A Boston paper this morning reports that the U. S. S. Montana with 500 marines from the navy yards of the North Atlantic coast, will be despatched immediately to Vera Cruz, following the taking on of supplies at Portismouth according to a report received last night.

According to the official statement,
the Montana which brought from Vera Cruz the bodies of the sailors and marines who were killed in battle, will dock at Charlestown today, and will then leave for Portsmouth where supplies will be taken aboard.

The report that it would start immediately for Vera Cruz with additional marines went the rounds of the Charlestown navy yard yesterday, and the members of that branch of the service now stationed there received it with elation. None of the men had expected to leave for Mexican waters until the U. S. S. Rhode Island received orders, and the prospect of action with the other outfits of the service came as a surprise.

At present there are about 100 marines at Charlestown. The remainder of the 500, with which the Montana will steam for Vera Cruz, will be taken from Portsmouth, Newport and Brooklyn, according to the report.

HELD FOOD SALE. Members of Mrs. Matthew's Class Score a Great Success.

The food sale held by Mrs. Matthew's Sunday school class of the North church, in the early Tuesday evening, was a great success. The chapel was elaborately decorated with flags, palms and flowers. The general chairman was Mrs. P. W. Clark of South street. Each member of the committee for distribution, wore a tiny silk flag.

The cake table was presided over by Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Craig. The bread and preserve table were in charge of Mrs. St. Clair, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. W. Frank Clark. Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Paul were in charge of the plant and flower table. The president and vice-president, Mrs.
Drost and Mrs. Hammond, had charge of the tea table, where tea, wafers and assorted nuts were served. The candy table was in charge of Mrs. Allingsand Mrs. Locklin.

The waitresses were Mrs. Dagg and Mrs. Campbell. The flowers used in decoration were jonquills and lilacs.
A most enjoyable and profitable
evening was spent and the members of the class are highly elated over their success.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Rev. W. P. Stanley Talks on Palestine and Egypt Before Missionary Society.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in the vestry Tuesday afternoon and evening. A pleasant afternoon was spent in conversation and sewing.
Supper was served at 6 o'clock consisting of salads, baked beans, rolls, pickles, assorted cakes, pies, etc. The tea served at the supper was sent to Mrs. Chadwick as a gift from a missionary in China.

After supper Rev. W. P. Stanley gave a stereopticon lecture on his travels in Palestine and Egypt. This proved to be of great interest and was greatly enjoyed.
By means of such meetings the missionary workers are strengthened and encouraged, to say nothing of the most enjoyable time spent in attending them.

Gov. Felker Says He is Proud of New Hampshire Troops and Believes They Will Do Duty Manfully

Boston, May 12—It is the unanimous opinion of the war department officials that orders will be issued to assemble the troops in each of the states in mobilization camps, according to a report submitted to Governor A. W. Hall today by Major J. A. Harvey of the regular army.

Major Harvey who has just returned from a conference with Washington officials at the governor's request says that if a call for troops comes, Massachusetts will be asked to furnish its quota with the other states on a pro rata of population and that ver-unteers will not be drafted unless the militia proves inadequate to the requirement.

Six officers of the militia were detailed today that they had been rejected by the medical board and were given until May 20th to request re-examination. From other officers who failed to go before the medical board were ordered to submit in an examination before May 20.

According to Major Harvey's report the plan of mobilization camps for state militiamen contemplates the formation from these of divisions of concentration camps where troops
may be readily available in the event of a call for service. During his stay in Washington Major Harvey talked with Secretary of War Garrison, Brig.
General Arthur L. Mills, chief of the militia division and other officials.

New Hampshire Troops Ready

Rochester, May 12—Although the general tone of news from Washington relative to the Mexican situation reaching a crisis where armed intervention will be the only solution, has been optimistic in the extreme for the last few weeks, the developments of the last 24 hours have been so rapid that affairs have assumed a probably more serious than at any previous period.

News reached here late last night that the war department is preparing in the opinion that orders will be issued shortly to the governors of the states throughout the Union for the establishing of mobilization camps,
and in the instance of New Hampshire the militia will be stationed at Concord.

In an interview with Governor Felker
it was learned that while he had received no direct information from the war department in mobilize the state troops, such a call would not be surprising to him and that in fact he believed such action would probably be imperative in the course of a short time.

Issues General Order

Anticipating this measure, Governor Felker has issued through the office of Adjutant General Fotherby, an order requiring all recommissioned officers and men whose enlistments have expired to be examined physically. They will at once present themselves to the surgeon at their home station for such examination. The order is as follows:

"All officers who have been recom-missioned without examination and an enlisted men who have continued in service after the expiration of their term of enlistment will be at once examined physically by the surgeons at their stations, applying the requirements of the regular service, contained in general orders, No. 46, war department, 1910.

"In view of the possibility of service in Mexico, company, troop and battery commanders will ascertain and report immediately through the regular military channels the names of officers and men in their commands whose physical condition, business affairs or family relations would render them unavailable for this service.
Regimental and battalion commanders
will make their similar report concerning their field staff officers and noncommissioned staff officers."

Speaking together, the governor said that the militia of the state are in a high state of efficiency and are ready for an instant response for any duty which may be assigned to it.

"When the call comes," he said, "I will transmit it with all possible speed and a firm confidence that the officers and men of the National Guard of New Hampshire will do their duty manfully wherever they are placed."
He further said that he would not interfere with the national administration and comply with the requests of the war department to the letter.

TAKEN ILL.

Motorman Amee of Atlantic
Shore Road Checks Car
Before He is Overcome.

Amos W. Amee, a well known motorman on the A. S. R. R., was taken suddenly ill this morning while driving the 8.00 o'clock trip on the Dover line. Mr. Amee felt himself soon lose consciousness and had the presence of mind to apply the air brake.
He then pitched forward into the vestibule of the car, but the brakes did their work and the car came to an instant stop. Mr. Amee recovered in a very short time and was insisted upon taking his car again, but finally was persuaded to return to his home.
He has seen many years of service on the road and has a host of friends all of whom hope that his illness will be brief and not serious.

State Militia Playing at War In Preparation For Real Thing.

Photos by American Press Association.

These pictures show just what the militia in many states are doing in preparation for war with Mexico. There are all told about 125,000 guardsmen ready for instant service. War game tactics are being played in various sections to keep the men up to snuff in field service. One of these views shows infantrymen in a ditch made by the explosion of dynamite. This is the newest method of making quick trenches for the soldiers to fight from. The other shows a field cannon in action.

which is enshrined in an eternity of silence. To the bereaved family the sympathy of the community goes out in large measure.

The thrifty children are in their leisure moments busily engaged in the dandelion industry. Amid the freshening verdure of the lawns or more likely in the moist fields, they appear as though by some magical growth—a bit of saffron fire against the somber background of its environment.

SAYS SULPHUR IS SURE TO RELIEVE ITCHING ECZEMA

Get an Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Skin Eruptions Right Up

Any breaking out of irritation on the face, arms, legs or body when accompanied by itching, or when the skin is dry and feverish, can be readily overcome by applying a little bold sulphur cream, says a noted dermatologist.

He informs us that bold-sulphur instantly allays the angry itching and irritation and soothes and heals the eczema right up leaving the skin clear and smooth. Bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position for many years in the treatment of cutaneous disorders because of its parasite destroying properties. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in treating the irritable and inflammatory skin affections. While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subdue the itching irritation and drive the eczema away and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Those troubled should obtain at any pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which is applied to the affected parts in the same manner as an ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant, and the prompt relief afforded, particularly in itching eczema, proves very welcome.

No Time for Pessimism.

Occasionally there is heard the note of pessimism, which is not strange in view of the many evils of the times. There is rank dishonesty in big business, if we are to believe the reports of investigators and those who are laboring to remove the evils. That there is much in our political life that is abominable is known to all, and thus far the results of efforts to overcome this great and apparently growing evil have been more or less discouraging. There is a great deal of dishonesty and hypocrisy to be weeded out of our business, social and political life before conditions in the country can be all that they ought to be. This fact is becoming recognized and that is an encouraging sign, for admission of the presence of wrongs and a willingness to face the facts, however disagreeable, are the first steps toward genuine reform.

A prominent Brooklyn clergyman in a recent sermon to the students of an eastern college dealt with the subject of hypocrisy. He spoke of it as it was known in ancient days and said: "Hypocrisy is not a lost art, but is found here and now in this world, which has grown better. The principle of deceitful hypocrisy is shown in the struggle to keep up appearances at the expense of others. We want people to believe us richer than we are. A man should be proud of showing what he really is. The good, the beautiful and the true are not to be bought."

Another man who is awake to the evils of the times, and who is apparently unduly alarmed, is a prominent dentist who addressed a New England Dental Society a few days ago. Without charging the dentists with any professional shortcoming he said that "incidentally, there has been a tendency away from uprightness in other lines," and he predicted that there will be a dictatorship for this country within a hundred years if present policies continue.

But that is an extreme view and an unwarranted fear. This country is not going to ruin or coming under the rule of a dictator. The evils that afflict us are many and some of them are grievous. They must be rooted out, and they will be. That the people are awake to the situation is a favorable omen, and that they will in time work out their own salvation there is every reason to believe. Consequently pessimism and discouragement are out of order. It is a time to be up and doing, hoping for the best and trusting in the ultimate ascendancy of the good and the true.

The way in which leading men of the country divide on the tolls repeal question shows something of the size of the question. Former Secretary of State Philander C. Knox adds his voice to those protesting against repeal, but it still looks as if the views of the President and his supporters would prevail.

Siegel and Vogel, the department store and private bank frauds, have secretly disappeared. But the old saying, "Out of sight, out of mind," cannot be truthfully applied to them. They will be long remembered with sad hearts and in bitterness of spirit.

Lillian Nordica, one of the sweetest and most famous singers this country ever produced, has passed on to the Great Majority. The great and the beautiful as well as the humble and the miserable have to die. "The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

Splendid tribute has been paid to the young Americans who lost their lives at Vera Cruz. But such honors for all would not be practicable in case of real war, and this glamour should not blind any to the dangers and horrors of war.

The leader of a disturbance in a New York city church last Sunday was formerly pastor of a church in Brooklyn. He should now be appointed prison chaplain, with his field of operations behind the grates.

Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison have "won out" in their long-winded contempt case. It hardly seems as if it should have taken so long to establish their "innocence."

The President's tent on the White House lawn looks cool and comfortable, but the chances are that under present conditions he is able to get up a sweat there once in a while.

It probably seems hard to those Colorado warriors to be obliged to surrender their arms, but Uncle Sam has their best interests at heart when he compels them to do it.

The scientists claim they can now operate successfully on the hearts of dogs. Soon they will turn to the human family with the barber's familiar "Next!"

The army and navy are calling for aeronauts, the only class of men who are practically as safe in war as in peace.

Huerta's peace delegates and General Funston have shaken hands. But that doesn't end the trouble by any means.

Southern vegetables and fruits are cheaper, but not cheap.

WITNESSED THE BIG PARADE

Mrs. Finlayson Writes Interestingly of Suffrage Parade in Washington.

(By Elizabeth Lord Finlayson)

Washington, May 12.—As one of the patrons of your paper and also one of the members of the Portsmouth Suffrage League, I am asking you to print this little account of the suffrage parade at Washington on Saturday, May 9, when 5000 women marched down Pennsylvania avenue to the Capitol and presented to the members of the senate and house the petitions of hundreds of thousands of other women of the country for the passage of the Hefstow Mandell constitutional amendment giving them the right to vote.

It was one of the most inspiring sights I have ever seen and although the procession was an hour going by our hotel it was an ever changing line of interest.

The suffragettes were splendidly guarded by United States mounted police to prevent any repetition of the disgraceful hoodlum insults of a year ago. Consequently the crowd of on-lookers were perfectly orderly and by the applause manifested were evidently also appreciative.

The procession was headed by a squad of police. Then came women bearing the suffrage flag and the stars and stripes.

Section after section passed by representing every state in the union, all wearing white with the suffrage colors flying and bands playing, nine bands being interspersed along the lines.

Many colleges sent delegations, among them Bryn Mawr, Smith, Vassar, Wellesley, Howard and the medical college at Philadelphia; then came the law colleges and active practitioners, both of these sections wearing caps and gowns.

Behind them the kindergarten; then the writers and actors, among whom were many well known names. Mrs. Harvey Wiley led the home-makers.

The different political parties were also represented, men marching in these divisions. It would take too much space to enumerate all the societies and orders represented or to tell of the floats and the beautifully decorated automobiles, but what brought forth the most applause were the children decorated with flowers, each carrying a tall spike of bright hollyhocks, with garlands of flowers connecting one to another.

The grounds of the capitol formed a perfect setting for the background. The trees are now in full leaf and lawns as green as grass can be. Many women rode spirited horses and managed them splendidly with one hand holding aloft a banner in the other.

The weather was perfect. The inspiring music all along the line added to the effect and altogether it made a picture I shall not soon forget.

A NEW DRINK.

Two Local Teamsters the Victims of a Practical Joke.

Two local teamsters were the victim of a practical joker on Sunday last. It seems that one of the teamsters had provided himself with a bottle of good old New England, and when his fellow knight of the whip called at the stable the two sampled the contents of the bottle. The bottle was then carefully put away for future use. Unbeknown to them the whole proceedings had been witnessed by the owner of the stable. As soon as the two were out of sight, he quickly emptied the contents of the bottle and replaced the same with some horse liniment. The bottle was placed back in its former place on the beam and Val waited for future developments. In a short time the two teamsters returned and decided to again sample the contents of the bottle. The guest was the first to partake of the contents and after taking a long draught, he let out a yell that would have done credit to a Comanche Indian. His

CURRENT OPINION

When Army Suddenly Expands Most Pressing Need Is for Trained Officers.

If we were in danger of war with a great power with our small regular army I should urge every young man who could do so to get about preparing himself for military service. To be thoroughly effective this ought to be done long beforehand, and therefore I have been deeply interested in a plan for summer military camps which will fit college men to serve as Junior officers and thereby fill the greatest need we should suffer in war on a large scale. But, however large the field of operations in Mexico may become, our country is in no peril.

When an army is suddenly expanded the most pressing need is for trained officers. The nation maintains a college for such officers, but I am not aware that the government has yet called to the flag the cadets at West Point. It believes that it can render a better service to their country by completing their education, and I think that until the call for volunteers comes the same is true of students in college.—By A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University.

companion looked up in amazement and inquired what was the trouble, whereupon he was invited to see for himself and he accordingly took a deep draught from the bottle. As the derry-drumment burned its way down, each of the participants executed a war dance and vowed that such stuff might be good for the best, but not for the man. They are now wondering if this is the special brand that flatters drinks.

CANAL NEARLY READY.

First Ship May Pass Through Under Regular Conditions Next Week.

Panama, May 12.—The first ship to pass through the Panama canal under regular conditions will probably make the trip early next week. According to Gov. Goethals, the channel through Cienfuegos will be completed about Thursday. Observations will be maintained on the slide for a short time and then a Panama railway ship with cargo will be sent through.

The channel is being dredged at the rate of 100 feet daily, and the Empire suspension bridge will be removed immediately.

LAST WEEK OF DORIS KEANE IN "ROMANCE."

The last week of Doris Keane at the Wilbur Theatre is announced. Immediately following the close of her tour which ends on Saturday night, Miss Keane will go at once to Germany for a much needed rest after a season of thirty-one consecutive weeks. Counter attractions notwithstanding, the Wilbur theatre with "Romance" is doing a smashing business and it is quite clear that lack of patronage is not by any means the reason for the close of the season.

"As Miss Cavallini, Miss Keane in her bands upon the character with a touch as firm as it is delicate, and as eager as it is bewitching. The result is an impression that for its unflinching spirit, its lovely variety, its swift, sharp alternation of mood, its authority and its richness of coloring must be ranked among the most notable impersonations that an American actress has given to our stage in twenty years."

Thus commented the learned dramatic critic of the Chicago Record-Herald a few months ago on the work of the accomplished young actress. It is indeed strong praise, but not by any means too extravagant, because the acting of Doris Keane is a revelation of naturalness and photographic similitude. It will be a long time before the Wilbur houses a more notable attraction and one with such potent force.

The engagement of Miss Doris Keane will terminate with the performance on Saturday night, May 23.

WHY WOMEN BUYERS ARE SHREWD BUYERS

Any man will tell you that his wife can get more out of a dollar than he can.
Women have the natural value sense—they know what their money's worth means.
One reason for this is that women are great readers of advertising. No part of a newspaper is of greater interest to them than the advertising columns.
They study them daily and they shop as carefully through the newspapers as they do when they go to the stores themselves.
Without the advertising, the newspapers would lose half of their women readers. Incidentally, local merchants would lose more than half of their business.
Would you like to know more about it while you are working out your plans? Drop a postal of inquiry to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York.

Senate Naval Committee Balks on Appropriation for Equipment.

Washington, May 12.—Complications have arisen over the appropriation of $148,000 for the equipment of the Charlestown navy yard for building the supply ship because of an amendment to the House Naval Appropriation bill by the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs. The bill was reported to the senate this afternoon.

As originally framed the bill provided that "the unobligated balance under the appropriation for marine barracks at Boston, not to exceed $148,000 is hereby made available for the building and equipment of the Charlestown yard."

This was thrown out in the House on a point of order raised by Representative Jones of Virginia, a champion of the Norfolk navy yard, that it was "new legislation."

Representative Murray promptly amended the bill to read that "to work out the law for construction of the supply ship there is hereby appropriated $148,000 for the improvement of building ships," and for the original appropriation for the marine barracks to be covered back into the treasury.

This was adopted by the house and appeared in the bill as it was sent to the senate. The senate committee on naval affairs erased Mr. Murray's amendment and substituted the original wording of the paragraph containing the Charlestown item.

In ordinary circumstances the joint conference committee of the House and the senate might be expected to restore Mr. Murray's amendment, but there is a bitter fight between the Philadelphia and Norfolk navy yards into which it is possible that Boston may be drawn.

In the House Representative Jones of Virginia defeated an item of $200,000 for construction of a naval vessel. Philadelphia retaliated by defeating an item of $500,000 for Norfolk.

Chick Evans More Feared than Outmet by British Golfers

Chick Evans, the young Chicago golfer who has recently arrived in England, is acknowledged one of the greatest match players in the world, and is more feared by the British than the open champion Quilmet. Quilmet is intensely popular abroad, but Evans thought that both Travers and Evans are the better men. Evans was doubtful when the invasion was first planned, but at the last moment business was arranged satisfactorily, and the youngster got off with little or no preparatory practice.

Theatre is announced. This is the melodrama treating of modern conditions in New York life, which has caused a sensation not only in the metropolis, but throughout the country; for it has provoked editorial comment and praise from such eminent Americans as Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, who wrote of the play, "All employers of labor who underpay their women employees should go to see this play for the lesson it will teach them," and the Bishop of Wyoming, who said, "I shall never forget the lesson it portrayed." "Within the Law" is in four acts and as many scenes. Jane Cowl heads the company.

ATTACKED BY WILDCAT.

Animal Killed in Air as It Leaped on Shoulders of Gardener.

Barnum, Me. The life of Gunnar Warden E. S. Holmquist was saved recently in the woods near here by the quickness and unerring aim of William Ryer, proprietor of a set of sporting traps at Round Brook lake. The two men had been hunting wildcats with dogs and had killed two of the animals. They were standing under a tree when Mr. Ryer chanced to look upward.

Perched on a branch directly above the game warden was another cat, as large again as either of those that had been killed. The animal was creeping slowly forward, its lips drawn back over its glittering teeth and the look of a demon on its savage face. Just as Ryer's eye caught the cat the animal gave a start and leaped full for Warden Holmquist, still unconscious of his danger. Ryer, shouting a hasty cry of warning, whipped his 28 caliber revolver from his holster and fired while the cat was in the air. The bullet struck the animal between the eyes, and he dropped dead.

"It was the closest call I ever had, and I never want another like it," Warden Holmquist said in telling of the affair.

Already the grafted skin has started to take root, and the patient can partly open and close the eyelid.

After the skin was taken from Miss Trego's arm the scarred tissue surrounding the eye and the membrane of the lid were removed. In the denuded area the skin of the patient's arm was grafted.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Illinois public utilities commission has ordered all steam railroads by July 1 to comply with the new electric headlight law, which requires a light for passenger engines making objects distinguishable 800 feet away and for freight 450 feet.

The bridges and building department of the Boston and Maine has a crew of bridge builders at work on bridge 16 at Lebanon making preliminary changes, preparatory to installing a modern steel bridge.

On petition of residents of Hopkinton and Ashland relative to continued operations of trains through those two towns to Boston, the public service commission has ordered the New Haven for an experimental period of three months to run a week day train from Milford to Ashland and vice versa to connect with Boston and Albany trains at Ashland. Formerly the New Haven and Boston and Albany furnished a service to Boston which gave Hopkinton four trains a day in each direction, but when the operating agreement between the companies was terminated these trains were taken off. The only train service now furnished to Hopkinton is one mixed train devoted largely to freight transportation.

SENATE VOTES FOR TWO BATTLESHIPS

Naval Appropriation Reported in Senate--Another Million Added to House Bill.

Washington, May 12.—Chilling for nearly $141,000,000, the Naval Appropriation bill, which has passed the House, was ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs today. The bill appropriated $140,800,000 last year. The Senate committee has added approximately $1,000,000 this year to the House bill.

The building program as adopted by the House, was left intact. As the bill will be reported it will have an appropriation for two battleships, eight submarines and six destroyers.

An interesting feature of the action of the committee was the determined attempt made by some senators to increase the number of battleships. A motion for an increase of the program to four battleships was lost by a margin of two votes. A motion was then made to make the number three. On this motion the vote was a tie. A compromise was then agreed upon for two big vessels. This amounts to the adoption of a two battleship program beyond the shadow of a doubt.

The provision for increasing the shipyard's corps was reinstated. This had been knocked out on a point of order in the House. Another provision restored was that permitting the Secretary of the Navy to designate a certain number of enlisted men each year to the Naval Academy.

The appropriations for an extension of the powder plant at Indian Head, Md., and for a government contract for a drydock at Hunters Point, Cal., were restored. A new feature of the bill is an authorization of a $2,000,000 drydock at Norfolk, Va., with an initial appropriation of $200,000.

Provision for the expenditure of $100,000 for a dredger at Key West Fla., also was inserted, with an initial appropriation of $100,000. The theory of the breakwater is that it will make Key West a base for torpedo boats. At present torpedo boats at Key West have to get under way in heavy weather in order to avoid being blown ashore. This project has never been estimated for by the Navy Department.

SUES FOR $800,000 TAXES

Government Moves Against Oleo Manufacturer John F. Jelke, Recently Sentenced to Imprisonment.

Chicago, May 12.—John F. Jelke and the oleomargarine manufacturing company which bears his name were made defendants in two Government civil suits yesterday to recover $800,000 in back taxes, with interest, on oleomargarine. Jelke recently was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for defrauding the Government out of the 10 per cent tax on imitation butter, and much evidence introduced in this case will be used in the civil action.

PRESIDENT WILSON BACK

He Arrived in Washington at 7.30 A. M. and Went Immediately to White House for Mexican Conferences.

Washington, May 12.—President Wilson returned to Washington at 7.30 a. m. today from New York, where he participated in the memorial for the Americans who fell at Vera Cruz. The president was conveyed directly to the White House for breakfast.

rectly to the White House for breakfast.

A conference with Nelson O'Shaughnessy, formerly charge of the American Embassy at Mexico City, and a meeting of the cabinet awaited the President.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

POPOVERS are rare. Most of us think we know how to make them, but when we get as far as we get, and the worst of it is, we often fail to find out that we have been deluding ourselves until it is too late to acquire the habit.

"He guesses, thinks he's thought and expresses an opinion."

RISE OF THE POPOVER.

There are some places in our country made famous by the wonderful breakfast cakes like muffins and popovers. The secret of success in any line is painstaking care and also one who gains a reputation in any line is one who not only does things well, but does them a little better than anybody else. There is real skill in the making and baking of a good muffin and popover. In the popover we want something entirely different from the texture of the muffin. The inside of the popover is hollow or made up of very large bubbles, so we must remember not to beat the eggs only enough to mix them, as the popover uses the eggs solely for this lightening. In all cakes in which eggs are used for the lightening the oven should be slow. With popovers it is extremely essential for their perfection that the oven should be slow at first. As the popover batter is thin, if heat is applied too rapidly at first the mass begins to expand quickly and the mixture being so thin the walls of the air cells burst and the popover refuses to pop. Here the oven so slow that the popovers rise very slowly the first 20 minutes.

Popovers—Take three eggs, a pint of milk and a pint of flour, sifted before measuring, and a teaspoonful of salt. Grease nine deep cups or muffin pans; this is another point not usually followed; a shallow gem pan will not do, the deep granite cups make the best popovers; they will then rise 6 to 8 inches high. Break the eggs into a bowl without separating the yolks from the whites, beat just enough to mix them, then add the milk. In a second bowl, have the flour and salt and add the egg mixture slowly, beating well until smooth. Strain through a sieve and get into the cups, they should be two-thirds full. They will be done in 30 minutes and should be as light as a feather when lifted. The interior is always slightly moist and they should be served without being piled on one another.

Gold popovers may be opened like cream puffs and filled with any desired filling, then served as a dessert or for a child's lunch. If filled with a good custard this is a most desirable dessert for children.

MEXICO STILL ARRESTING AMERICAN CONSULS

The Case of Consul Silliman May Cause Trouble--Funston Making Plans to Protect Water Supply.

Washington, May 12.—Senator Onizco, the Brazilian Minister in Mexico City, informed the State Department today that the Mexican Government had ordered the immediate release of Vice Consul John R. Silliman, held a prisoner at Saltillo. The minister added that as soon as Mr. Silliman reached Mexico City he would obtain for him safe conduct to Vera Cruz.

Three Important Phases Today.

While Huerta's mediating mission steamed north from Vera Cruz today and the American delegates began plans of organization for the Niagara Falls conference, these three important phases in the Mexican situation stood out, demanding urgent attention. The fate of John R. Silliman, United States Vice Consul at Saltillo. Disposition of five South Americans arrested for sniping operations at Vera Cruz.

Settlement of the "occupation" of Lobos Island, which drew a protest from Huerta's Foreign Minister.

Silliman's case was among the first of the developments that were submitted to President Wilson when he returned today from New York, where he paid tribute for the Nation yesterday to the Americans who fell at Vera Cruz. Sec. Bryan was emphatic in announcing after a conference with the South American envoys, that the Government's determination to have Silliman released.

Keeping Lobos Island Light

The Lobos Island incident was taken up by Sec. Daniels. He had before him this report from Rear Admiral Mayo at Tampico.

"Lobos Island has not been occupied. The Dixie and some destroyers anchored there, and other vessels have coaled there from a collier. The keepers of Lobos Island Light described it, and the Dixie is now maintaining it for the benefit of navigation. I understand that the destroyers have had occasional swimming parties ashore."

General belief was expressed that this explanation would amply answer Huerta's protest that the United States by seizing the island, had violated the armistice, and would make it plain that the Dixie's commander acted only to insure protection to shipping by maintenance of the Lobos Light.

South American "Snipers"

Disposition of the cases of the South Americans arrested at Vera Cruz had been halted, pending word from the Ministers of their respective countries.

When it became known that Gen. Funston proposed to try the men before a military court-martial, the Brazilian Minister in Mexico City appealed for them. Sec. Garrison decided to postpone action on that point until that property it should have been made by states of which the prisoners are citizens.

Silliman's case was regarded as the most serious phase of the situation that loomed ahead early today. Reiterated reports stated that Silliman, now clerk, Joseph A. Marchant, and several other Americans were arrested at Saltillo by Federalists. Late dispatches indicated all the Americans had been released, with the exception of Silliman, who, apparently, still is under arrest.

Marchant arrived in Vera Cruz yesterday, where he reported to Consul Canada that before he was released he was marched to the consulate, where he was forced to open the safe. The Federal commander confiscated all its contents, including consular records, money and jewelry. The other Americans released were reported to be on their way in safety to Vera Cruz.

The Silliman incident was regarded as aggravated because the Mexican Minister of War, last week, had assured the French Charge d'Affaires in Mexico City that neither Silliman nor any Americans "had been in danger."

Death Grapple at Tampico.

Word anxiously was awaited today of the result of fighting at Tampico, where rebels and Federalists were in a death grapple for territory in which millions of American and British dollars are invested. Gen. Zaragoza, commanding at Tampico, reported to Huerta early today that the Constitutionalists had been defeated Saturday with heavy losses. It was believed there had been heavy fighting since then, and that the Federal reports were not necessarily conclusive.

The rebels were planning to renew their campaign in the North, and Carranza agents asserted the Constitutional chief expected to conquer the Federal garrison at Saltillo and establish his capital there, pending the final campaign against Mexico City. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, late charge of the American Embassy in Mexico City, expects to have an interview with President Wilson today.

Assistance of Conferees.

Associate Justice Lamar of the Supreme Court and Ex-Secretary General Lehmann, named as the American delegates to the Niagara Falls conference, hope to take up immediately with the President and Sec. Bryan the appointment of their assistants.

The steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie, with the Mexican delegates aboard, will reach Key West this week. When she sailed from Vera Cruz late yesterday she had on board arms and ammunition consigned to President Huerta, which she was not permitted to land at Mexican ports.

The envoys of Argentina, Brazil and Chile, expected to leave Washington later in the week to complete the final program for the meeting at Niagara Falls.

VERA CRUZ WATER SUPPLY

Gen. Funston, Placing Patrols All Along the Pipeline—No Other Movement of Troops.

Vera Cruz, May 12.—While the Mexican Commissioners are en route to attend the peace conference at Niagara Falls, Ont., and during the sessions of the conference, there will be no inauguration of hostilities by the American forces here, and there is no reason to believe that the Mexican Federals will advance their lines.

The recent charge by Gen. Blaquiere that the Americans were breaching the armistice, caused Gen. Funston to confer with his legal adviser, Col. Porter, Gen. Funston and Col. Porter agreed that while actually in armistice of truce, either implying hostilities, which none but President Huerta admits exists, there is a tacit understanding that neither side will inaugurate hostilities.

So far as this agreement affects the movement of troops within their own lines Gen. Funston and Col. Porter declared that both the Mexicans and American forces had this right. It is expected that President Huerta will move some of the Mexican troops toward the coast, and behind the American lines such minor changes of position as are required will continue to be made.

The interpretation placed upon the agreement by Gen. Funston and Col. Porter would permit of unlimited strengthening of both the Mexican and American forces so long as no advance was made.

Water Pipe Line Protected.

Slight alterations were made today in the position of the American forces to which the Mexican authorities might find objections, but which are regarded by Gen. Funston and Col. Porter as justified beyond any question of dispute. At the Tular water works station there was a detached outpost. Between this post and the main body of troops there were only connecting posts, but on account of the absolute necessity of protecting the water supply of Vera Cruz patrols were ordered to be placed all along the pipe line.

The water supply is as plentiful as ever, but the increasing population due to the influx of refugees, has made its conservation one of the most important matters to be considered by Gen. Funston.

Several schools reopened today, in addition to those which were re-established yesterday and the Department of Public Health and Police continued their work of restoring the city to normal conditions.

The work of the native officers has been quite satisfactory, according to Capt. Pamford, head of the Police Department. Thus far the native officers have escaped the disapproval of their fellow countrymen except in a few instances, where they were made the victims of jeers and taunts. When such instances occurred the prompt arrest of the offenders has resulted in a display of more respect for the work of the native police by Mexicans generally.

Americans here, who own property in various parts of Mexico, report that from refugees and other sources, a large number of plantations west and south of Vera Cruz, abandoned by the owners, have been looted.

"DEATH TO AMERICANS"

Paris, May 12.—"Death to Americans" was written in Spanish in large black characters across the stone door steps of the United States Embassy offices in Paris, last night. The authorities have posted three policemen on permanent duty in the vicinity.

PLANS NEW ARMY HOSPITAL

War Department Will Not Attempt to Care for the Wounded in Vera Cruz.

Galveston, Tex., May 12.—An army hospital will be established in Galveston in the event of war with Mexico, or if many additional troops are sent to reinforce Gen. Funston's army now in Vera Cruz.

William C. Hildreth Again Takes Charge of Office at York Beach.

On Tuesday William C. Hildreth of York Beach received his appointment as postmaster for the summer. He will assume the duties of the office today and continue until October 1. Mr. Hildreth held the postmastership for 15 years, resigning last spring on account of illness, being succeeded by A. C. Farwell, who died suddenly several weeks ago from pneumonia.
Robert Farwell, the latter's son, has since then been acting in the capacity, but declined the appointment permanently. Much interest and conjecture has been shown in the matter and now that the appointment has been made, the many patrons of the office will be glad to learn it has been placed in the efficient hands of Mr. Hildreth, whose long experience qualifies him to handle the enormous business done at the office during the summer months.
General opinion is that next fall, civil service examination will again be held to fill the vacancy. There are several prospective candidates.

Don't Look Good

The report in a Boston paper that the U. S. S. Montana would make but a short stay here and put in at the yard simply for supplies and a detachment of marines, appears to have no foundation. No official here can verify the report and no change in the original orders received here has been made. The department has authorized the docking of the vessel and other work, while the commanding officer and others have arranged for quarters ashore at the local hotels, during the ship's stay here.

Believe It Is Coming

Much uneasiness is felt in the department of public works over the advance information that the clerical force will be reduced. The cut, will, it is expected, come in the drafting room and four or five men may be dropped. The cause of reduction is said to be owing to lack of funds and work.
